

Says

What have we heard them say?
What can we imagine them saying?

Thinks

What are their wants, needs, hopes, and dreams?
What other thoughts might influence their behavior?

green world
YOUNG
GENERATION

What we are doing to the forests of the world is but a mirror reflection of what we are doing to ourselves and to one another.

Green is the prime color of the world, and that from which its loveliness arises.

Earth provides enough to satisfy every man's needs, but not every man's greed.

the archetypal function of literature in visualizing the world of desire, not as an escape from "reality," but as the genuine form of the world that human life tries to imitate."

n several of Shakespeare's comedies, the protagonists leave the civilized world and venture into the green world, or refuse "to escape from the rational law of society, which is the case in such comedies as As You Like It and A Midsummer Night's Dream.

The clean and green ecosystem provides us with fresh air and pollution is also reduced.

a strong social conscience, a sense of environmental responsibility, a focus on diversity, human rights and a recognition that business has an impact that goes well beyond the financial.

Energy, Georeferencing and Telecommunications always keeping in view, in its professional relationships, the establishment of a partnership relationship "win-win" with all those involved, namely our customers, partners and employees.

The Green World is an environmental platform that seeks to protect the environment against the misuse or degradation from human forces.

The green world is the space where different peoples meet each other: Illyrians and Messenians in Twelfth Night, humans and fairies in A Midsummer Night's Dream, courtiers and country-dwellers in As You Like It.

In essence these plays are all first contact narratives in which each group sheds light on the other.

a hypothesis that claims that Predators are the key to keeping our world green

Does

What behavior have we observed?
What can we imagine them doing?

Feels

What are their fears, frustrations, and anxieties?
What other feelings might influence their behavior?

See an example